

The Pharaoh's daughter was bathing in the river and found a basket among the reeds. Inside it was a very special baby boy. She called him Moses because it means "pulled out of the water." Exodus 2